Dear Rick,

Hi there I've just found out you are living here now, great! I would have written sooner but this bloody in-communicado lark is rather bothersome when it comes to knowing what's going on with everybody, I am the proverbial mushroom.

I must say how grateful my family and I are for your tremendous support. Thank you. I would also have you know you are most welcome anytime to visit but I do understand if you would rather not, however feel free to contact Grace about the details you may even wish to visit with my mother and sister Jacqui if you prefer or Pat? Either way I certainly will look forward to seeing you again because I have made it a point to thank you in person and shall come to visit you when I am eventually "exonerated" and released.

I pray all things are well with you and Perth is to your liking, it certainly is a beautiful city but don't trust the police or the justice system ha ha but no really, the sad truth is you honestly can't.

Things are reasonable for me in here and I am in good health I never knew I was so "strong" & my faith in God has helped though and you have played a part in restoring my faith in people thanks again, cheers then, Andrew
